

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. I am vehemently opposed to this since Sinclair is using the public airwaves free of charge. Per law, they are to serve the public interest.

If the FCC allows Sinclair to move ahead with this programming, then the FCC needs to be changed.

Where does it end?

Please stop Sinclair from this type of political positioning, and show the American people that the FCC can not be bought and paid for.

Thank you in advance.
